

The Voice of Freshwater Fishing Resorts & Angling Guides

BC Fishing Resorts and Outfitters Association

CODE of CONDUCT

Products and Services - Members will:

provide clean and well-maintained facilities and equipment for the enjoyment of their guests endeavor always to provide the highest quality service possible and employ well-trained and courteous staff follow proper safety practices at all times and will encourage safe practices by their guests appropriate to the outdoor vacation experience.
provide all guests a fair exchange on the Canadian dollar

Resource Use - Members will:

adhere to fishing and outdoor regulations of the Province of British Columbia and provide any necessary information to guests on these regulations. It is the member's obligation to take appropriate action in the event of violations of resource use regulations.
promote responsible and sustainable use of the resource base participate where possible in activities to maintain the resource base, protect and enhance habitat, and provide input to government on resource management.

Marketing - Members will:

strive for "truth in marketing" and ensure that the expectations of guests are matched by the product offered. Members will advise guests as to what is expected of them for equipment, clothing, and skill levels.
provide guests with advertised rates and will explain clearly the accommodations, rates and taxes prior to booking.

Association/Member Responsibilities

The conduct between and among members will be governed by cooperation and ethical behavior.

The Association will encourage professional growth among members and will implement ongoing programs to achieve this.

The Association and its members will cooperate with government, and other resource-based tourism industry operators and Associations in working towards common goals.

To improve our service to the public, the Association and its members will encourage client comment on their experience, both good and bad. Comments should be addressed to: BCFISHING RESORTS & OUTFITTERS ASSOCIATION, P.O. Box 3301, Kamloops, BC V2C 6B9
